

The Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies and The Department of History of Concordia University announce a new course at Concordia University

The History of Ukrainians in the Old and New World

September 1978-May 1979

- The social, economic, cultural, religious and political history of Ukrainians from Kievan Rus' to settlement in Canada
- Course number: History L291
- 6 Undergraduate credits
- Lectures once a week in the evenings
- Available to all Full-time and Part-time Concordia students
- No course pre-requisites
- Registration deadline September 7, 1978

Instructors

Dr. Roman Serbyn and Prof. Yarema Kelebay

For further information:
Dr. S.J. Scheinberg
Chairman
Department of History
Concordia University
1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. O.
Montreal H3G 1M8

Tel: 879-5884